

THE SECRET

Amy's found the journal on the train and she started to think what could she do. Minutes later she started reading. It was about a mermaid's story. She can't believe it, because she loved fantasy stories, specially, mermaid's stories, so she was so excited. Suddenly she arrived to her station, so she had to stop reading. She went to her home, where there were her family; her parents, her little brother and her twin sister. Then, she forgot the journal and continued with her life.

Two years later, she was already eighteen. Her life hadn't changed very much. She always had been a messy girl, but one day she decided to clean and put in order her room. Doing this, she found lots of things of her childhood and her teens. One of these things was the journal that two years ago she found in the train. Suddenly she started thinking how and when everything happens. Then, she started reading the whole diary. This took five hours. When she finished, she was very surprised. This journal, as she remembered before start reading, was about a mermaid's story. The journal was a mermaid's journal. She was shocked when she finished reading. The following days, she started investigating to whom could this journal belong. One of these days, she found a photo into the journal, and she realized that was the same picture as the picture on her livingroom. Finally, days after asking her parents where did this picture was coming from, her mother told her biggest secret: she was a mermaid! The point that Amy never knew, was how her mother became a mermaid...
