

Three Parts of a Sentence

Identify the subject, verb and complement in each sentence. Underline the subject and the complement, then circle the verb.

Remember:

The subject is what or whom the sentence is about.

The verb is an action.

The complement is always after the verb.

The teacher misses her students.

Ben likes to draw pictures of dolphins.

The children played in the mud.

Jessie's dad is painting the garage door.

I built a sandcastle at the beach.

The bicycle needs new tires.

We had a picnic in the park.

My favorite color is orange.

Mike and George went bowling.

Mina bought a new pair of sneakers.

Two cats chased each other across the street.

Jeff is reading a fantasy book.