

Name:

Class:

1 Read the dialogue and cross out the wrong cinema posters.

- Have you got any plans for tomorrow night, Thomas?
- Not really...
- Let's go to the cinema then. Look, there's a fantasy film at the Rex Cinema.
- Hmm... I don't like fantasy films much. Is there a documentary on?
- No, but there's a historical film on at the ABC Cinema.
- Hmm, what about something different? What about a comedy?
- Well, there's a romantic comedy at the Lumière Cinema.
- I saw that one last week. Is there a science fiction film on?
- I can't see anything here; besides, I don't like science fiction... What about an action film? There's a good one on at the King's Cinema.
- I'm afraid I don't like action films. We have very different tastes! What's on at the Globe Cinema?
- A cartoon. It's one of those cartoons for adults and children. It looks good.
- OK, let's go and see that!

2 Match the sentence halves.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|
| 1 The theatre company made | a shows three times a week. |
| 2 The actors toured | b a musical. |
| 3 The dancers became | c in theatres and concert halls. |
| 4 They performed | d Europe for six weeks. |
| 5 They had | e famous. |