

SCAVENGER HUNT

NON-OBLIGATORY TASK

Tick (✓) the elements you can find in your house and when you are in the street.

If you want you can draw the objects, take a picture or write the translation.

The vocabulary is a little difficult. It is not necessary that you look for all of it.

The aim is that you learn some new vocabulary.

You can look for the vocabulary on:

- <https://www.linguee.es/> → gives the translation.
- <https://www.wordreference.com/> → gives the translation.
- <https://kids.wordsmyth.net/we/> → gives the definition and picture.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL kids.wordsmyth.net/we/?ent=hanger. The search bar contains the word "hanger". On the left, there is a list of "Alphabetical Results" including hankering, hankers, Hanoi, Hanukkah, haphazard, haphazardness, happen, happened, happening, happens, happier, happiest, and happily. Below this is a "Multi-words Results" section with "cliff-hanger", "coat hanger", and "hanger-on". On the right, the word "hang-er" is displayed with a "Free Trial Subscription" button. Below it, the pronunciation is given as "haeng er" with a speaker icon. The "features" section lists "Homophone Note" and "Word Explorer". The "part of speech" is identified as "noun". The "definition 1:" is "a frame with a hook at the top, made of wire, wood, or plastic, and shaped so that one may hang clothes over it." An example sentence is "I put my coat on a hanger in the closet." At the bottom, there are two images of hangers: a black wire hanger and a brown wooden hanger.
