

A Sant Jordi different

This year Sant Jordi we'll pass it at home But we can't complain a lot Because it seems different

The 23rd of July, it is said, will be the day when we can buy the books with joy and we have to think that roses with mask won't have the same smell, but we'll do it with humor

This year will be different all our parties surrounded by our people

So you have to wait hoping to celebrate the Easter, Sant Jordi and whatever suits no fear of the pandemic
