MY MEMORIES

I was born on 17 of march 2005 in Tortosa, Spain, in a great family, with an older brother and a little one. My mom and my dad got divorced when I was 4 or 5 years old. That marked my childhood a lot. I grew up being very mature and intelligent. I was a very curious girl. I liked to read (I won a reading competition when I was like 7 or 8) I was always in my own world, inside of my mind, and I still, I mean, I'm a pisces, my mind is a whole different world and I'm a great dreamer. Sometimes I forget that I'm "alive" and I fall asleep awake dreaming and dreaming. The most influential person in my childhood and in my life is my mom, she, the strongest, generous and sweetest person in this world. I never was "religious" but now I am, and I never felt this happiness, I found me on Islam, I found happiness and something to hold onto. I don't know what would happen to me without Islam. I am happy now. Thanks to God. Not all in my childhood seems like a dream, I was so noisy, if I had to have a nickname, it would be crybaby. I think 80% of my childhood was crying. I literally cried about everything. And I used my acting talent to get what I wanted. I have to admit that sometimes I still do it, but I don't want to abuse it. My biggest fear has always been that my mother dies, or I die by drowning. I'm claustrophobic. Also my biggest fear is insects.

I studied in Pompeu Fabra in Reus till 4th grade and then I went to Sant Bernat Calbó. Now I'm in high school, in Josep Tapiró.

I have always lived in big houses. And I have moved a lot.

I didn't like going to school very much, I used to feel like nobody understood me but I used to have good grades. I always had what I wanted and I'm so grateful for that. I had many pets, fishes, birds... A guinea pig that I loved so much, she was Try, and she passed away at 2 years old :(, she was very loved and very well cared for. I miss her so much. Now I have a cat, he's name is Mucu, 6 years old now, he's a big boy. We adopted him when he was just 1 month old. I love animals but I'm allergic and I have a very bad time when I hug or I play with my cat.

My first best friend was Fatima. When I moved from my first school I lost contact with her.

I used to hate English so much, I didn't understand anything, but now? English is my life, I LOVE ENGLISH, my phone is in English, I listen to english music, I watch films and series in English only and sometimes with subtitles, but guess what, SUBTITLES IN ENGLISH. I don't really know what happened to me but I LOVE ENGLISH. And that's why I want to be an English teacher. I know my english is not perfect, but I know I'm not bad at it. I try to NEVER use the translator and if I made a mistake, it's MY mistake and not Google's mistake. :)

When I was a kiddo I wanted to be an actress or a singer or something like that, then a policewoman, actually I would like to be a policewoman but I prefer to be an English teacher and share my love for English to other kids and show that English is great. I wanted to be also an economist or something like that but I hate maths so no.

In conclusion, my childhood was a dream, I mean, a great and full of happiness stage. :)

MY PERSONALITY

I consider myself a brave person because I'm not afraid to do what I like or say what I think, but I'm so respectful and I always respect and I don't like to judge or to be judged. I'm talkative, I'm shy but when I get confidence with someone I will not stop talking and laughing and I know how to listen to people and I can get advice. I'm so cheerful and very friendly, before I was sooo shy but now I'm more confident and sociable. Something that I don't like is that I'm very impatient, I just can't wait to have what I want. Sometimes I'm lazy but I feel great when I finish all my homeworks and I have a productive day. I'm so neat and I like to see things all clean and in order.

MY PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Hello, my name is Souad, I am fifteen years old so i'm young. I'm short and I've got olive skin. I have a round face and also a rounded nose. My eyes are pretty brown oval and I have curly short brown hair. I've got a small mouth and thin lips. People say i'm pretty cute and beautiful but sometimes I don't think so.

MY FUTURE

Future, we are always talking about future, but no one of us know what is going to happen. I'm one of that type of people. I'm always talking about what I want to do and what I want to be. And I am going to tell how I think my future will be. I want to finish BAT in Spain but I want to study English Filology in an English country and live there because I want to be an English teacher. I like UK, it was always my dream to go there. I like a guy that I met on social media and maybe I'll go visit him to USA or maybe he will come here to Spain to meet each other, and no one knows, maybe we end together... I believe that in a few years I'll feel better and I'll feel good 100% with myself. I want to travel around the world and know about the different cultures. I want to get married and have children, i love kids and I can't wait to fall in love with someone, but first I have to fall in love with me, I am working in that and im sure in the future I am going to love myself.

WHO HELDS ME?

I'm always grateful of the people I have around me, my family and my friends. I have the best mother. I can talk with her literally about ANYTHING and she always holds me and helps me with everything. I am so lucky to have the best friend on the univers. Salma, she's not my bestie, she's my sister. I love her so much, she's always with me, helping me in all and giving me adivices.

The End
