My memories:

Hello, my name is Chayma, I am 15 years old. I was born on 02/09/2005 and I had my childhood in Reus, and it was very short. When I was child, I was lucky, because I had my family, and my friends with me. I remember that I didn't have friends, my only friends were my nieces. Because I was very antisocial, ut with my family I was very chatty and very funny.

My mother told me that when I was born my sister thought I was a doll. Also they told me that I was a little GIRL , but very moved and I was very chatty. In my family I am the smallest, and the most chatty. When I was a child, I always told: when I was big, everybody laughed at me. I remember I had a black rabbit, and everytime I wanted to take it to all parties.

My most influential person with me, when I was a child, is my big sister, because is like my mother. So when I was child, my favorite game was hide, everytime I played this game with my nieces. I think, they were very important in my childhood.

In my childhood, I was scared to sleep alone, because I imagined that a monster would come and eat me. MY sister's husband called me a cat, because everytime I hid under the table. In conclusion, I think that my childhood is very important for me, and I will carry those moments always with me.

My phisicaly apparence:

Hello, my name is Chayma Azzouz and I am 15 years old. I am medium height, I am slim also I am olive skimmed. My face is oval and I have got wavy black hair. I have brown and hazel eyes and my nose is small. So I have got thin lips and I have got some freckles in my face. In conclusion I think I am pretty.

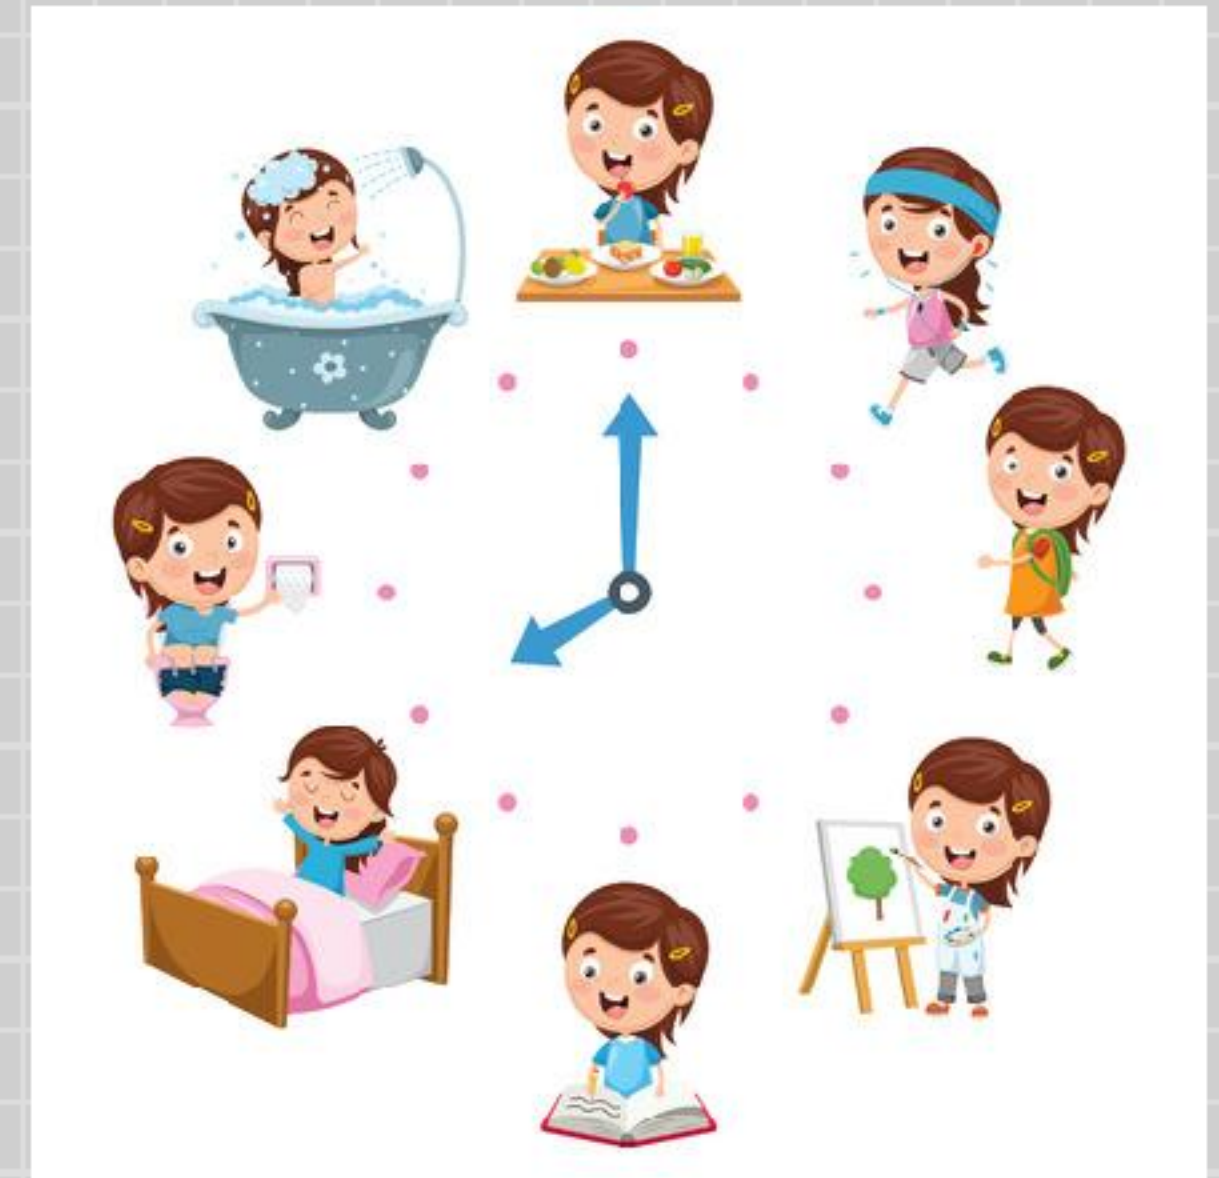

My personality:

My personality is a little bit weird. Because I feel uncomfortable with the people that I don't know. The first feeling people say is I am quiet, and kind, in my opinion I am quiet because I don't like to talk much with strangers. But my family says I am extroverted, easy-going, witty and hesitant. In my opinion I am neat, easy-going, patient and sometimes with the people I have don't confidence I am reserved. Also some people think I am a teenager that thinks most serious than another teenagers. In conclusion, as I said, my personality is a bit complicated.

My routines:

I wake up at 8:00, and I get up. The first thing I do is go to the bathroom, I wash my face, I wash my teeth, and I purify myself. Then I go up, I get dressed, I pray and I tidy my room a bit. Then I go down to the kitchen and have breakfast, and prepare my sandwich. Then I say goodbye to go to school. I finish my classes at 3:00 and I come back to my house. I pray again and I have lunch. When I finish my food, I help to wash the dishes, and to do the housework, and then I do my homework. When I finish, I check my phone and I go to pray again. At 8:00 or 9:00 my brothers go to my house and let's have a snack. We have a snack and when we finish we go to pray. Then my brothers come back to their house, and I, my other brothers, and my parents have dinner. When I finish, I go to have a shower, and wash my teeth. So when I finish, I go to bed, I check my phone, and then I go to sleep.

My future:

In my future, I would like to study Law, since I would like to be a lawyer. Because I am passionate about all these things, and I am helping society itself to see justice done. I would also like to be able to move to Barcelona, I see in that city a good future for the career I want to study.

I would also like to save enough money to take my parents to Mecca, it is a very special place for them and for all Muslims. I would like to participate in many, many campaigns to help those who could not live a stable life.

I would like to buy a house where I and the person I love live. On the issue of children, I do not plan to have some until my economic and psychological stability is stable, and I want to adopt this child, for give a person the opportunity to live under good living conditions. I would like to lead an active life. And this is what I would like
