Personality

When they asked to describe myself i never know what to say. I believe that i am a quiet person and that i only speak when it is prudent, and also when i have confidence, there is no one to sheet me up with the people who are new to me. I am very suspicius but as time goes by i like them, i am kind and like help others, for me it is more or less complicated to make friends because i get very nervous sometimes i am witty, i find it very difficult to express my feelings but in the end i am a person with whom you can live.

My memories

I was born in Colombia (Cali) in 2005/23/10, when my mother told me that on the day of my birth she said that it was raining and that it was because I was reincarnated because the rain is because the dead did not leave and reincarnated in me. My first memory was a trip around my country but we did not go through all the sites, it was an unforgettable day because it was the first trip with my parents, apart from this my father was my idol that early age, I was a quiet student, obedient, because that was what my parents had taught me, as a child I had five dogs that all died for the same reason run over. in the summer I used to go with my friends to walk in the cities that were missing so I traveled to the cities of my country, when I did not go to my friends' house, with them I learned to play my favorite game which was marbles, My first best friend was Luis Santiago because he was beaten up in school and I defended him and that's why he became my best friend since I was, my biggest fear was the darkness because I was afraid of what was inside of it, in school I didn't have any nickname because I was the one who gave it and if I had it I didn't know it.

My future

When I grow up I'm going to have money to help my parents, I'm also going to be a policeman and when I finish my career I'm going to become independent and then I'm going to be a lawyer and then I'm going to go to my country to try to get rid of all the politicians who are doing evil to my country.
