

I'm very happy.
I have spent a good time at home,
creating beautiful drawings, spending time with the family.
But to be honest, I have missed La Bastida a lot and I am very happy that finally we are getting out of lockdown.
And especially thanks to all the teachers for giving us support and saying that everything will be fine, things are finally being fixed little by little.