ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Background:

St. Patrick is the patron saint of Ireland and St. Patrick's Day falls on 17th March, the anniversary of his death in the fifth century. Although originally a Catholic celebration, it has become more and more secular with parades, music and songs both in Ireland and in countries to which the Irish have emigrated. People wear green, the colour that represents the 'Emerald Isle' and shamrocks as a badge on the lapel.
