LISTENING COMPREHENSION

1. Fill in the gaps, WITH ONE WORD ONLY, while you listen to Daniel and Hana's conversation

<https://soundcloud.com/ello-todd/12-05-danielhana-cooking-adverbs-frequency>

Daniel: So Hana, tell me, do you cook much?

Hana: Yes, I (1)_____ cook. I (2)_____ cook with my roommate, and we (3)_____ make Chinese or Japanese food. How about you?

Daniel: Well, I don't really cook that (4)_____. I'm really (5)_____ during the week. So, I (6)_____ just get something at the shop and get that. But, during the weekends, I (7)_____ cook during the weekends because I really like making food. That's what I do.

Hana: So, do you ever eat out?

Daniel: Only occasionally, because I'm really busy during the week, and I (8)_____ cooking, so not really. I don't go out really (9)_____ to eat. Whenever I'm tired, and I don't have time to cook during the week, I go and eat out with a friend, so! And you?

Hana: Well, I (10) _____, so I normally go and eat out during the weekend with my friends or family.

Daniel: So do you ever buy take-away?

Hana: No, I (11) _____. Normally when I go out to eat, I like to sit and enjoy my food. How about you?

Daniel: Well, that's really (12) _____. Of course, I do like to sit and (13) _____ my food, but I have to admit that occasionally I have to buy take-away, especially when I'm coming late from work, and I'm driving. I'm so (14) _____ that, most of the time, I don't really make it home, so I have to buy something on my way, and that's a shame, so that's the way it is.

And do you (15) _____ have people over for dinner?

Hana: Yes, I (16) _____ do. I really like cooking so occasionally I invite my friends over and cook for them or we all cook together. How about you?

Daniel: Not really. I do love cooking, but the problem is my place is really (17) _____, so even though I want to invite my friends I (18) _____ do it, because my place would only fit one or two (19) _____. So unfortunately, I (20) _____ have my friends over for dinner.
