

20 Electronic Technicians for Locomotive Assembly at Siemens Mobility GmbH (Germany)

Have you considered working abroad?

Randstad Germany is offering a well-paid and permanent position as an Electronic Technician for locomotive assembly at Siemens Mobility GmbH in Munich.

A minimum A2 level in German is required. Support for relocation and integration (accommodation, language courses, and help with paperwork) is fully provided. Other job opportunities are available for welders, electricians, engineers, mechanics...

Candidate Requirements

- Qualifications: Technical diploma in electrical/electronic systems. (GM Técnico de Instalaciones Eléctricas y Automáticas) or a higher qualification in Electronic Maintenance / Electrotechnical and Automated Systems (GS Técnico Superior en Mantenimiento Eléctrico/en Sistemas Electrotécnicos y Automatizados) is required.
- Experience: At least 1 year in electrical assembly.
- Skills: Ability to read technical instructions, manual dexterity, attention to detail.
- Availability: Willingness to work shifts.
- Language: German A2 minimum.
- Nationality: Must be an EU citizen.

Are you interested?

Send your Europass in English or German to Randstad Germany:

ris.muenchen@randstad.de

Subject: EH Siemens: Last Name, First Name

We only accept CVs in the Europass format.

You can create your Europass CV by clicking here.

Position details:

- Contract: Permanent, with potential for direct hire by Siemens.
- Working Hours: 151.67 hours/month, in shifts (morning, afternoon, night).
- Salary: €2,599 to €3,398 gross/month (hourly wage from €17.14 to €22.41).
- Holidays: 25 paid days/year.
- Bonuses: Holiday and Christmas bonuses after 6 months.
- Accommodation: Double room for €350/month (first 3 months).
- Transport: €58 monthly "Deutschlandticket" for unlimited travel.
- Language Support: Free German language courses.
- Work Environment: International and supportive team setting.

Your responsibilities as an Electronic Technician:

- You will be responsible for performing basic assembly and wiring tasks of components according to the provided plans.
- Additionally, you will carry out simple testing and measurement activities.
- You will collaborate with your colleagues in the installation and commissioning of electrical components.
- Moreover, you will complete assembly protocols and the corresponding testing documentation.
- At all times, you will ensure compliance with the established quality and safety standards.