A day in the life of Irina Malkovich

Irina Malkovich is an acrobat, a very good acrobat. She is also very young –Irina is only ten years old. She is a member of the spectacular Circus of the Moon. The circus is famous because it doesn't have any animals –only people!

In some ways Irina is a normal girl. She gets up at 7:30 in the morning, has breakfast and then goes to school. But for Irina, school is the circus school –there are thirty children at the school, and they speak seven different languages! School finishes at two o'clock in the afternoon. After school, Irina has lunch in the circus café, and then starts work as an acrobat. She practises her act in the afternoon and then goes home to her caravan. In the evening, Irina does her homework and then watches TV or a video or listens to music. She usually goes to bed at 10:30.

So does Irina like her life? 'I love being in the circus,' she says. 'It's hard work, but I have my parents and all my friends here. And I really like the applause after my act!'
